Contest by McCarty Continues-

Do You Remember . . . . .

The student rabbit hunts held during the Christmas holidays? The School Choir going caroling around the campus? James Larney pulling students around the ice-covered streets with a car that had no fenders, no hood, no top, and no trunk? It did have one seat, but that was reserved for the driver.

Where Are They Now . . . . .

Jacob Edward Tsotigh, class of 1964, now lives in Menlo Park, California. Malcolm Webb, Jr. from the class of 1940 now resides in Odessa, Texas. We regretfully inform you of the passing of Jimmy Brown, class of 1956.

For The Students . . . . .

The number of Chilocco graduates will increase this December when 11 students will receive their diploma at midterm. The Chilocco Alumni Association wishes to congratulate these graduates and welcomes them into the Association.

Pat DesJarlait and Vince Parker not only knew who the mascot was for Chilocco's National Guard Company but presented a copy of the article from which they found the name to Mr. McCarty. Other students also found "Charlie" but these were the first to bring his name to Mr. McCarty and receive the Susan B. Anthony dollar.

Enough interest was generated by this contest that Mr. McCarty has decided to have another one. The contest starts at 8:00 A.M. Monday, December 17. The first student with the correct answer will receive a two-dollar bill. So read carefully. . .

As you know, Chilocco has a large herd of beautiful white-faced cattle. At one time we owned one of the finest dairy herds in the state. It is also claimed that our present herd of Morgan horses is the largest in the entire United States. Over the years Chilocco has possessed many prize winning animals but did you know that Chilocco has its own seal? This seal is located on our campus and can be found if you look into our school's history.

The first student who gives Mr. McCarty a picture, or a copy of a picture, of the "Chilocco Seal" will win the two-dollar bill. So learn a little more about Chilocco's wonderful history and Happy Hunting!!!

Sorry Charley! The printing students will not be eligible for this contest.

All Alumni are requested to meet in the School Auditorium at 7:00 p.m. on Wednesday, December 19, 1979. We need your vocal cords so that the Alumni Association can make their annual caroling rounds on the campus and in neighboring communities.

This is the official mascot named Charlie of C Company of the Chilocco National Guard unit. Pat DesJarlait was the lucky winner.

MERRY CHRISTMAS AND A HAPPY NEW YEAR FROM THE JOURNAL STAFF

SUPT'S MESSAGE

A Message to My Chilocco Staff,

At Christmas time we begin to think more about the birth of Christ, the Spirit of giving, and good will toward our fellow man. BUT I wonder if we ever stop to think what God's plan is for us. WHY are we AT CHILOCCO; WHY ARE WE AT THIS PLACE AT THIS PARTICULAR TIME.

God has protected us from the many aflections that befall man. God has given us life, has nurchered us, has cherished us for a purpose. Why? I'm satisfied his expectations for us are great and many.

There is much good that can be done here at Chilocco. With a strong resolve and a staunchness of purpose we can do much to fulfill God's plan for us AT THIS TIME AT THIS PLACE.

God bless each and every one of you, and have a joyious Christmas.

EDITOR'S NOTE

This is to advise all students, parents and ribal organizations Chilocco will begin lasses for the second semester on Jan. 7, 980. If Chilocco is to close it will be after une 15, 1980. The school's survival depends n many things but a 250 enrollment is a nust for the 2nd semester. This can only be ccomplished through the support of interested parents and tribal organizations.

EDITORIAL

Well, this is the time of the year when we must say "So long" to our best of friends. But at Christmas time each year you could say, "See you next year", in hope of returning to Chilocco and seeing them again!

For many of us this past fall semester went by fast. It seemed like it was only yesterday when we were enrolling for this term.

To me and maybe to some of you it was a good year. Although, some of us had our ups and downs we can say that we had accomplished much. Chilocco is the place to get your high school education! for it is here where you can learn responsibilities to yourself and to others, your opportunities in going out into this world are greatly increased if you will only take advantage of them.

As a student and a fellow human being, I take this opportunity to wish you success in life, have a positive feeling about your future, to be happy in whatever you do. Also, I wish you a very Merry Christmas and many Happy New Years! May God Bless You and Watch Over You!

The Cheerleaders have been practicing every day on their routines and new cheers and are looking very good! They have been doing a good job of keeping the crowd involved and hope to encourage our teams to play hard and win.

The Junior class gave up the spirit stick to the CIS staff for the week of Dec. 3-10. It was a close race between the staff members and the Sophomore class.

SENIOR-PROPHECY

As we look into our Crystal Ball it is December of 1989. Ten years have elapsed since Chilocco's ten graduates got their diplomas and went forth to make their fame and fortune.

Ah! we see Wendell Bowman driving a tractor through the field. We also see this sign by the highway which says "Bowmans Ranch." Looks like Agriculture really got to him.

In Mississippi we see Sylvia Hickman, a secretary typing away all dressed up in heels and a pretty dress. Looks as though she really means business.

In Carnegie, Okla. we see Danny Williams, he just became his own bouncer and threw someone out of his bar. If you can't figure it out you should know what he owns. It says "Danny's Bar and Grill."

In Pine Ridge, S. D. we find Patti HeCrow in a Print Shop printing the newspaper for the Pine Ridge community. It looks as though she really enjoys her profession because she has Mr. Cooper working for her.

While watching a football game on TV guess who we saw? Yep, Nelson Webster is the star quarterback for the Nebraska Cornhuskers. He has really hit the big times.

Hear this, the coaches for the girls basketball pro stars are arguing over Jill Whiteskunk. Everybody wants her to play for them. She doesn't look to concerned about who she plays for just as long as she plays. She is smiling and we faintly hear her say give my regards to Coach Jackson.

Guess who we found later on in the afternoon? Winona Willett and Brian Kemble in a Welding shop in Oklahoma City. I guess they went into business as partners but Winona is now the boss and Brian has become her ace Welder.

Last but not least is Mickey Kemble. We find her at a Ponca City print shop. Printing seems to be an attraction for former Chilocco printers.

The old Crystal Ball image is fading back to the present and I can make out a few of the words- It says "Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to All!!!..

POET'S CORNER

BEING G.I.

Being G.I. is sometimes a drag,
Being G.I. is having a snag.
Being G.I. is eating the food,
Being G.I. is being a cool dude.
Being G.I. is on time with the bell,
Being G.I. is sometimes hell.
Being G.I. is going to school,
Being G.I. is pretty cool!

BEAUTIFUL LOVE

When I go home to walk and spin
And the world comes to an end
I truely wish, I'll see you again
All the world needs peace and love
Just like the beautiful dove
That flies up above
So now I say good-bye
I wonder why . . .

LOVE OR FRIENDSHIP

Love or friendship
if you had a choice
To gain one and lose the other
if you choose for love
You may lose friendship
you may have many friends,
but you never have to many friends
If you choose for friendship
you may lose the love
You will have many "loves" in your life
but experiencing every emotion that love
creates is something you can keep forever
Love or friendship
if you had a choice . . .

FEELINGS

One day we will be together
Alone at last and free
I just say let it be
Just for you and me
You will see
I love you so very much
I hope you feel my touch.

THINK ABOUT IT!

No cool, big fool
No class, big sass
Skinney Case, big face
Skin tight, big bite
Legs boney, smile phony
No dig, dress pig
Boyfriend wish, breath fish
No rap, paint bag
Fake walk, double talk
Eyes four, money poor
Brain it, no wit
Hi would, too good
Try hard, eight-days

STATE LINE BLUES

In the darkened shadowy trees,
You are waiting in the breeze.
The lights are dim and you can't see
A car is coming and you flee.
The breeze feels good against your throat,
You wish you'd brought a bigger coat.
It's late at night, the time is gone,
You look around and soon it's dawn.
Look around, your friends are gone.
Your head is pounding, your mouth is dry,
At times, you wonder why.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

ART ROOM NEWS

The Art room never fails to show up with something new to do for it's students, as well as the teacher. With students coming from all over the United States there are always new ideas, different ways of- doing things, and the entire classes enthusiasm experiment with them.

First and fifth hours have been experimenting with color through tie dye projects. They have made some beautiful wall hangings and banners.

Many of the students have been learning the techniques of macrame. Hanging tables, wallhangings and plant holders of many sizes, colors and designs can be seen in the Art room.

The students want to thank the students and staff in building trades for their help in completing some of their projects.
